SECOND SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY ELW ~ SERVICE OF THE WORD

9:00 A.M. ~ Sunday, January 14th, 2024

“GOD’S RADICAL LOVE, LIVED OUT EVERY DAY”

Second Sunday after

Epiphany

THE LORD JESUS CHRIST WELCOMES ALL who enter this house of worship. May God bless our service of worship as we offer to God our thanks & praise. We pray the Holy Spirit will bless our fellowship and send us forth to reach out to our neighbors with love. If you are a visitor today, we pray our time together will be a blessing to you as you are a blessing to our gathering. Please join us in Fellowship after the service.

AVAILABLE WORSHIP AIDS

LARGE PRINT BULLETINS are available from the ushers.

ACTIVITY BAGS at the rear of church, are available for young children; please return them after the service. Thanks.

PLEASE SIGN the Friendship Pad as it is passed to you during the time of the offering.

I WISH CARDS in the pews are available for you to express your ideas or questions & may be placed in an offering plate.

GATHERING

WE PREPARE: All the baptized have a calling in God’s world. God calls not just the clergy but also the youngest child, like Samuel. The story of the calling of Nathanael plays with the idea of place. Nathanael initially dismisses Jesus because he comes from Nazareth. But where we come from isn’t important; it’s where—or rather whom—we come to. Jesus refers to the story of the vision of Jacob, who called the place of his vision “the house of God, and . . . the gate of heaven” (Gen. 28:17). Jesus says he himself is the place where Nathanael will meet God.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, † one God, who stretches out the heavens, who sends light to the nations, who gives breath to us all. Amen.

Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

God, our rock and refuge,

we pour out our hearts before you. We have known you but have not always loved you. We have wounded one another and sinned against you. We have not always recognized the Holy Spirit dwelling in each of us. Remember your covenant. Renew your creation. Restore us, that we might proclaim your good news to all. Amen.

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters. God has spoken: The time of grace is now.

In Jesus, the reign of God has come near. By the authority of † Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. You are God’s beloved. Amen.

WORD

FIRST READING

1 Samuel 3:1-20

The First reading is in 1 Samuel Chapter 3, verses 1-20.

At a time when visions are rare and unexpected, the LORD comes to Samuel and calls him to speak the divine word. Though just a boy, Samuel responds to God obediently, as Eli the priest has taught him to respond. This marks the beginning of Samuel's prophetic ministry.

Now the boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The word of the LORD was rare in those days; visions were not widespread.

At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow dim so that he could not see, was lying down in his room; the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was. Then the LORD called, "Samuel! Samuel!" and he said, "Here I am!" and ran to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call; lie down again." So he went and lay down. The LORD called again, "Samuel!" Samuel got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." But he said, "I did not call, my son; lie down again." Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him. The LORD called Samuel again, a third time. And he got up and went to Eli, and said, "Here I am, for you called me." Then Eli perceived that the LORD was calling the boy. Therefore Eli said to Samuel, "Go, lie down; and if he calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

Now the LORD came and stood there, calling as before, "Samuel! Samuel!" And Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening." Then the LORD said to Samuel, "See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make both ears of anyone who hears of it tingle. On that day I will fulfill against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from beginning to end. For I have told him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them. Therefore I swear to the house of Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be expiated by sacrifice or offering forever."

Samuel lay there until morning; then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Samuel was afraid to tell the vision to Eli. But Eli called Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son." He said, "Here I am." Eli said, "What was it that he told you? Do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and more also, if you hide anything from me of all that he told you." So Samuel told him everything and hid nothing from him. Then he said, "It is the LORD; let him do what seems good to him."

As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and let none of his words fall to the ground. And all Israel from Dan to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was a trustworthy prophet of the LORD.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 6:12-20

The Second Reading is in 1 Corinthians Chapter 6, verses 12-20.

Paul helps the Corinthians understand that God has claimed the entirety of their lives through the death of Christ. Hence Christian relationships and conduct, including areas of human sexuality, are to reflect the reality that we belong to Christ and that the Holy Spirit lives within us.

All things are lawful for me, but not all things are beneficial. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be dominated by anything. Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food, and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power. Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Should I therefore take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! Do you not know that whoever is united to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For it is said, "The two shall be one flesh." But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. Shun fornication! Every sin that a person commits is outside the body; but the fornicator sins against the body itself. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, which you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you were bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL

John 1:43-51

In John's gospel, Jesus' ministry begins with the call of disciples, who then bring others to Jesus. Philip's friend Nathanael moves from skepticism to faith when he accepts the invitation to "Come and see."

The Holy Gospel according to St. John the 1st chapter. Glory to you, O Lord.

The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him about whom Moses in the law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus son of Joseph from Nazareth." Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." When Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him, he said of him, "Here is truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit!"

Nathanael asked him, "Where did you get to know me?" Jesus answered, "I saw you under the fig tree before Philip called you." Nathanael replied, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" Jesus answered, "Do you believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than these." And he said to him, "Very truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

SCRIPTURE VERSE FOR THIS WEEK

Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!"

John 1:49

SAY, PRAY AND BLESS:

Jesus, Son of God, thank you for calling us to follow you and for leading us this day. Amen. (John 1:43)

Mealttime Prayer:

God bless this food. God bless this day. God keep us safe in every way. Amen.

A Blessing to Give:

May God give you faith in his Son Jesus and help you to follow him. Amen. (John 1:43,49)

CARING CONVERSATIONS

Discuss in your household or small group:

- If you could use only six words to describe who you are to someone else, what words would you choose?
- Nathanael described Jesus as "Son of God" and "King of Israel." (John 1:49). Do you agree with Nathanael? Why?
- Finish this sentence: "It is important that Jesus is God's Son because _____."

DEVOTIONS

God and of his intimate love and concern for each of us. Read and talk about these verses in your home devotional time this week.

You created the deepest parts of my being. You put me together inside my mother's body. How you made me is amazing and wonderful. I praise you for that. What you have done is wonderful. I know that very well. None of my bones was hidden from you when you made me inside my mother's body. That place was as dark as the deepest parts of the earth. When you were putting me together there, your eyes saw my body even before it was formed. You planned how many days I would live. You wrote down the number of them in your book before I had lived through even one of them.

Share stories of where and when you were born. If possible, look at baby pictures of household members. Say prayers of thanks for the wonderful gifts of God that each of you are!

SERVICE

When Jesus called Philip to follow him, he wanted to share the good news of Jesus with his friend Nathanael. He brought Nathanael to Jesus, and Nathanael began to follow Jesus, too. Who are your friends? Invite each household member to choose one friend with whom they can share Jesus this week through a special act of love, service or encouragement. Talk about how you can do this and what may be involved.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

January 18 is the Church festival of the "Confession of Peter." Peter means "rock" and when he was asked by Jesus to confess what he believed, he said, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Matthew 16:16). Set out a bowl of rocks. Have each person in your household take one and complete this sentence: "Something I believe about Jesus is _____." As an added activity, cement or glue the rocks together into your own "Confession Sculpture." Place it in your yard or garden as a symbol of your faith. An old Epiphany tradition involves hiding small items in a cake. On the night before the feast of Epiphany, a special cake would be served with three beans hidden within. Whoever found the beans would be the Kings at the Epiphany feast. In line with this tradition, bake a cake with coins inside. Give a paper crown to those who find the coins.
