ACTIVITY BAGS for young children are on a stand at the rear of church; please return after services. Thanks.

GATHERING

WE PREPARE... We worship on the first day of the week because Jesus was raised on that day. Every Sunday is a little Easter. This Sunday feels more like Easter than many as the appointed texts celebrate the reality of the resurrection. Live it up this Lord's day. Our God is the God of the living.

PRELUDE / PARISH NOTICES / BELL

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

We are gathered in the name of the Father, and of the + Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Let us come into the light, the revealing and healing light of God.

God of grace and glory we confess:

you have brought us through the night of sin into the light of Jesus' resurrection. Yet our lives are still shadowed by sin. Make us alive in Christ, O God. Make us new as you make all things new. Rescue us from evil and the gloom of sin, renew us in grace, and restore us to living in your holiness, through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen

Rejoice with all creation around God's throne! The light of the risen Christ puts to flight all evil deeds, washes away sin, restores innocence to the fallen, casts out hate, brings peace, and humbles earthly excesses. Jesus Christ loves you and + frees you from your sins by his blood. To him be glory and dominion forever and ever! Amen.

RESPONSIVE PSALM 17:1-9

Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me under the shadow of your wings.

Hear a just cause, O LORD; give heed to my cry; listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

Let my vindication come forth from your presence; let your eyes be fixed on justice.
Examine my heart, visit me by night, melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

I have not regarded what others do;
at the word of your lips I have avoided the ways of the violent.
My footsteps hold fast to your well-worn path; and my feet do not slip.

I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me;
incline your ear to me and hear my words.

Show me your marvelous lovingkindness,

O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who rise against them.

Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me under the shadow of your wings, from the wicked who assault me, from my deadly enemies who surround me.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Almighty and most merciful God, your bountiful goodness fills all creation. Keep us safe from all that may hurt us, that, whole and well in body and spirit, we may with grateful hearts accomplish all that you would have us do, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

WORD

FIRST READING

Job 19:23-27a

Job suffers the loss of children, wealth, and health. Accused by his companions of wrongdoing, he knows himself to be innocent. Here, in the midst of his suffering, Job clings to the radical hope that his vindicator, his redeemer, lives; and that one day he himself will see God.

*“O that my words were written down! O that they were inscribed in a book!
O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock forever!
For I know that my vindicator lives and that in the end he will stand upon the earth;
and after my skin has been destroyed, then in my flesh I shall see God, whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another.”*

The Word of the Lord     Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

This portion of the letter provides encouragement for the church at Thessalonica during a time of confusion and opposition, as some allowed their concern over Jesus’ imminent return to divert them from the central teachings of the gospel.

As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. Let no one deceive you in any way, for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. For this purpose he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Luke 20:27-38

The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke the 20th chapter. Glory to you, O Lord.

Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to [Jesus] and asked him a question: “Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man’s brother dies leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman and died childless; then the second and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.” Jesus said to them, “Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage, but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. Indeed, they cannot die anymore, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Now he is God not of the dead but of the living, for to him all of them are alive.”

CHRISTMAS WREATHS AND GARLAND ARE FOR SALE!

The women of Trinity are raising funds to continue our work for Trinity and the many organizations and people we help over the year. We are selling wreaths and garland until November 16th as a fundraiser to help with expenses. Wreaths will be delivered the first week of December. You can stop by the church office or see us at the table in the narthex to order. As always, thank you all for your support!

IT'S TIME FOR CHRISTMAS FOOD BOXES

It is time to start thinking about filling a Christmas Food Box for the families of our weekend food kids. Boxes will be available for you to pick up and fill starting Sunday, November 16. There are those in our community who are struggling to provide basic needs for their families. In the state of Minnesota 1 out of 7 children is at risk for hunger. One in four Minnesota households with children are food insecure. Currently we are feeding 49 children from 36 families. We are asking you to shop for a family and put items on the list in a box provided for you. These boxes will be given to the families prior to the Christmas break when children do not have access to breakfast and lunch at school. The FFA will be giving each child a fleece blanket and personal care products.

SCRIPTURE VERSE FOR THIS WEEK

I know that my Redeemer lives. In the end he will stand on the earth. Job 19:25 (NIRV)

SAY, PRAY AND BLESS:

A Prayer for the Week:

Lord Jesus, please help us to stand strong in faith and to hold tight to your teachings. Amen. (2 Thessalonians 2:15)

Mealtime Prayer:

God, you satisfy the hunger of those you love. Give us love for all who hunger. Amen.

A Blessing to Give:

May our Lord Jesus Christ and God the Redeemer encourage you and strengthen you to do and say good things. Amen. (2 Thessalonians 2:16)

CARING CONVERSATION

Discuss in your household or small group:

- What is hope? What is something you hope for?
- How does Jesus give us hope? What difference does the hope that Jesus gives make to the way we live our lives on earth?

DEVOTIONS

The letters of the New Testament are filled with words of hope and encouragement for Christians. The words of Paul in 2 Thessalonians 2:13-17 are an example. Do you know others who may need a few words of encouragement? For your devotional activity this week, prepare notes or cards of encouragement to send to them. Include one or more of these bible verses in your notes or cards: Deuteronomy 31:6, Isaiah 41:10, Matthew 11:28-30, Philippians 4:13, 2 Thessalonian 3:3. Take time to pray for the people you are encouraging.

SERVICE

Paul prayed that the Thessalonians would be strengthened "in every good word and deed" (2 Thess. 2:17). Brainstorm a list of good deeds that you can perform for one another this week. Write these on small slips of paper and have each family member draw one out of a hat. At the end of the week, talk about the good deeds you have either carried out or been blessed to receive.

RITUALS AND TRADITIONS

November 11 is observed across the world as a special day to commemorate the sacrifice of soldiers and civilians in World Wars I and II and in other wars. It is called Remembrance Day in Australia, Canada and the United Kingdom; Poppy Day in Malta and South Africa; Veterans Day in the USA; and Armistice Day in France, New Zealand and many other Commonwealth countries. Plan a household visit to a war memorial. Talk about the sacrifice of others for the sake of our peace and security. Spend a few moments in prayer for those now serving in the armed forces.
